ADDITIONAL HELPFUL TIPS

- Is your group size less than 16? Contact us for other suitable Celebration alternatives.
- Bringing in a cake from outside the eatery? No cakeage fee applies when booking a Celebration function (normally $35).
- A non-refundable deposit is payable to confirm the booking, with the remainder of the function fee payable on the function date + food and drinks as ordered on the day.
- We recommend an early booking decision, as we run a first in, first booked system.
- If you are adding some of your own decorations to the room set up, you will be able to gain access to the venue 30 minutes prior to guest entry with prior notice. If you require more time for adding your own decorations (i.e. balloon garland, etc), this will be considered subject to availability, and may incur an additional room hire fee.
